The 51st annual Saratoga Rotary Club Art Show returned to Saratoga last weekend. The theme was 'Come See All That's New!' this year, but everything was pretty new back in 1961 when the event was small enough to be held in Blaney Plaza. The first juried art show was held that year, and sales were only $560, well below the profits of recent years. Over the last 50 years the Rotary Club has given away almost $2 million to local nonprofit groups, thanks to proceeds from the art show.
